Call for Papers

NAFEMS, the independent international association for the engineering modelling, analysis and simulation community, is holding its Nordic conference from 25 - 26 October in Göteborg, Sweden. This two-day conference will focus on existing best practices as well as state-of-the-art in FEA, CFD and associated technologies – ensuring delegates receive a fully comprehensive overview of the technology available to them.

The conference will increase awareness and provide a discussion forum for topics that are vital to engineering industrialists and academics, offering attendees an unrivalled combination of industrial knowledge, expertise and forward-thinking to aid their deployment of CAE over the next few years.

Get Involved! – Submit your abstract

You are invited to participate by telling the engineering analysis community how numerical simulation is being used in your organisation and where you believe CAE is heading. The conference welcomes participation from every type of organisation – large and small, across all industry sectors.

We would like contributions to innovative applications as well as presentations on new techniques and methods for ensuring the quality of results, for improving data management and system integration as well as for progress in education and training in this area.

The event is open to both members and non-members of NAFEMS, with members able to attend the event for free towards using four seminar credits, as part of their membership benefits package.

We look forward to your abstract submission by 10 June 2022 to roger.oswald@nafems.org.

Please distribute this Call for Papers also to interested colleagues and. Many thanks in advance.
